ABOUT ARM

ARM Machine is the defense-aerospace arm of a family-owned mechanical engineering firm, founded in 1961. For the past 20 years, under the leadership of its third generation, our firm has been providing a wide array of solutions to numerous private and quasi-governmental clients in the defense, aviation, marine-tech, electric vehicle and space industries.

While our core business is in precision machining and metalwork, we also specialize in design, engineering, assembly, painting, coating as well as spec chemicals. We also take on prototype production projects, conducting the process from concept to finishing. In addition to our manufacturing and contracting services we now offer our own product line of sensors as well.
